

Support Group for Resource Parents of DC Children

Open to all foster and adoptive parents, kinship caregivers, and legal guardians parenting children through the DC foster care system.

- Could you use help in building a stronger relationship with your child(ren)'s birth parents?
- Do you sometimes feel that no one really “gets” the challenges of parenting children in “the system”?
- Is your care-giving role straining your relationships with family, friends, or colleagues?
- Would you enjoy an evening to relax and share with other parents while your children are being fed and cared for by skilled childcare providers?

If you answered yes to any of the above...

This monthly peer support group is for you!

FAPAC's monthly support group provides a safe place for people parenting children through the DC child welfare system to talk and connect with their peers. Participants are encouraged to share how their parenting role impacts them and to discuss the rewards and challenges of sharing responsibility for the care of the children with others, including birth parents.
