FACES.NET WORKER DASHBOARD GUIDE

---

CREATION DATE: October 5, 2012

Pointers to Remember:

1. The purpose of the Worker Dashboard is to support and assist workers in organizing their daily case management tasks.
2. The Dashboard is currently configured for Case Carrying and CPS Investigation workers only.
3. The Worker's Dashboard will display upon logging into FACES.NET.
4. The Worker Dashboard performance measures will display uniquely based on worker's workload assignments.
5. A blank or empty Dashboard will display upon logging in to FACES.NET if you are not identified in FACES.NET as a Case Carrying or CPS Investigation worker.
6. The Worker Dashboard will show a selected group of key caseload performance measures based on CPS and Ongoing services.
7. Status indicators (traffic signal concept) represent each performance measure status:
  - Red (requires immediate attention)
  - Yellow (requires attention soon)
  - Green (current)
8. A status indicator legend will display after clicking on an identified performance measure hyperlink.
9. Supervisors, program managers and administrators will be able to access the Worker Dashboard of social workers assigned under each respective administration.

1 Worker Dashboard Overview (Example: Worker with Case assignments only)

1.1 Dashboard Navigation

When logging into FACES.NET, the Dashboard will display on the main screen.

If worker navigates away from the screen, clicking on My Dashboard from the left window pane will again display the Dashboard screen. (See Figure 1)

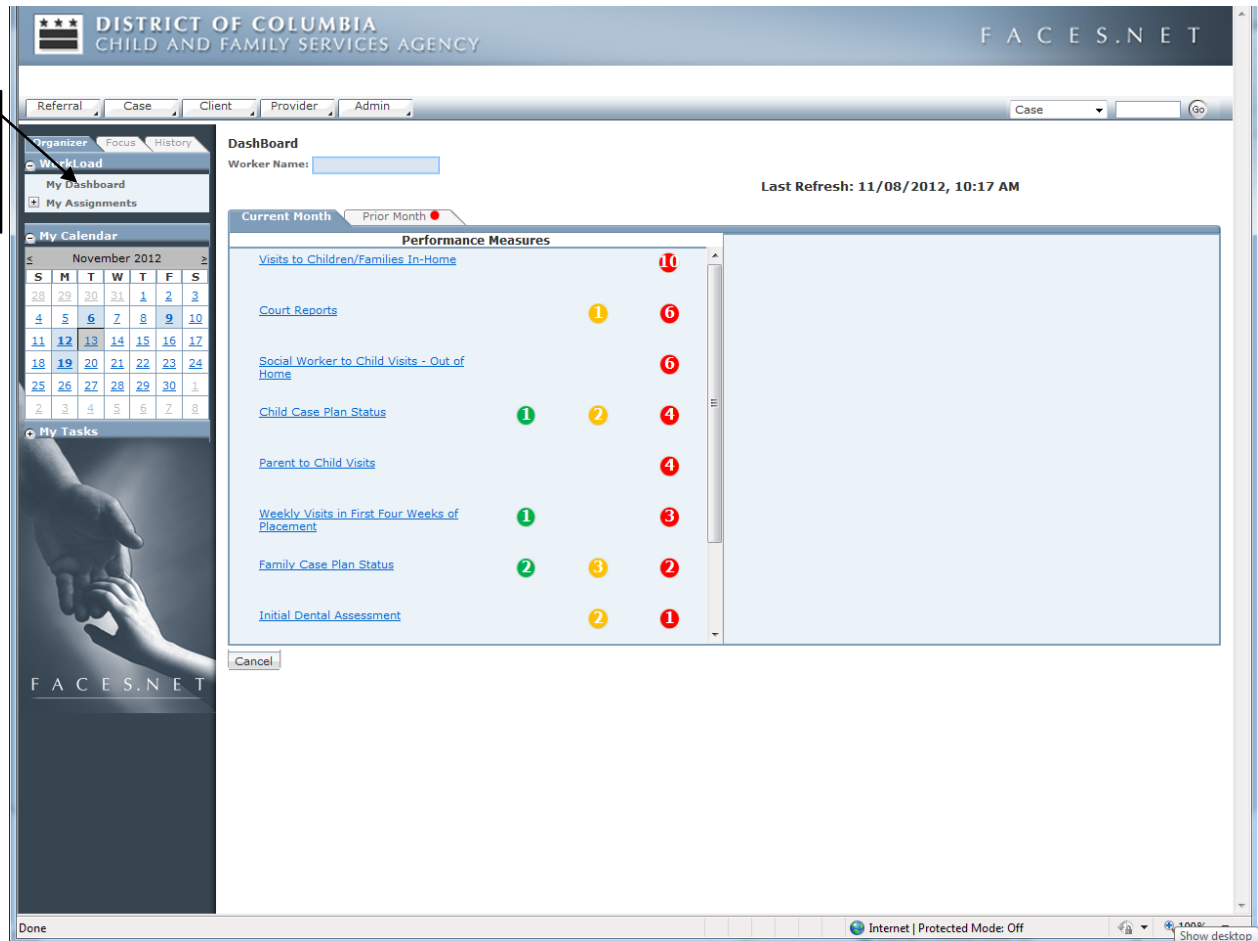

Figure 1

1.2 Performance Measures

Two tabs are displayed on the Dashboard screen, Current Month and Prior Month.

- Current Month tab will display the key performance measures and the status of each for the current calendar month.
- On the first day of each month, visits performance measures indicators on the Current Month tab will start out “red” until current month visits are documented in FACES.
- Prior Month tab will display the statuses of visits that actually occurred in the prior calendar month. If data entry/recording of prior month visits is outstanding, the prior month tab will display the relevant indicator status.
- Any visits completed in the prior month are shifted to view on the prior month tab, and will be displayed for the full calendar length of days.

Again, the Dashboard will display performance measures based on worker’s current workload assignments.

Status indicators will display alongside each performance measure to indicate the level of required attention. Red indicators will display first, yellow second, and then green. The red indicators will also display with the greatest number first.

Numbers listed within the status indicator are based on specific clients in cases.

If a performance measure is not displayed, then it is not applicable for the workload requirement.

If the count for a status indicator is “0” then that particular status indicator will not be displayed.
